

Give Me - Follows Through

Parent "Give me the toy."

Child "No." (child runs away with the toy)

Parent (Parent immediately gets the child and retrieves the toy)

Antecedent (The instruction)	Behavior	Consequence	Behavior will increase or decrease in the future
Parent ask child to give him the toy	Child does not give toy and runs away	Parent gets the child and retrieves the toy	The child will likely not running away in the future

The child learns if he runs away, his father will chase him. He will likely not run away in the future.